NEW ALAMEIN CITY.

An All Year Round Destination

Spread across more than 48,000 Feddans and planned to accommodate more than 3 million people by 2030, New Alamein City has changed our perception of the North Coast from a summer destination to an all year-round quintessential version of what a city should be. Its strategic location offers it a character uniqueness to the Egyptian market. With 14 KM of a breathtaking turquoise shoreline, New Alamein City leaves its visitors in awe and its residents with homes in paradise.

The city beats to a modern rhythm suitable for aspiring individuals to live a well-balanced life with all year-round amenities and necessities at their fingertips. From parks, museums and opera houses to international and national schools and universities as well as international fashion and retail outlets; residents and visitors alike are spoiled with choice. No compromise is made in regards to its amenities and facilities; world class industrial, touristic, agricultural and trading components cater to all local and international segments alike. Its pristine quality, impeccable planning and a thirst for the ultimate living experience are the ingredients of New Alamein's success in becoming a fourth-generation city and the future of Egypt.

An aerial photograph of a beach and ocean. The left side of the image is covered by a solid teal-colored triangular overlay. The beach is light-colored sand with some small dark spots. The ocean is a vibrant turquoise color with white foam from the waves breaking. The waves are moving from the top right towards the bottom right.
